Dear Bob, Gary, Jerry, and Jim:

It is our pleasure to formally thank you for your recent gift to support to prostate cancer research at the University of Chicago Medicine.

It was wonderful to have the opportunity to meet with all of you last week and to share the impact of your support. We are grateful for your investments in our work as they play a vital role in maintaining continued advancements in urologic cancer research and clinical care. Your commitment allows us to further our collaborative efforts and focus on innovative therapies that will help improve the lives of patients with prostate cancer.

Again, thank you for your strong dedication to our work and for supporting prostate cancer patients and their families. Your generosity is greatly appreciated, and we look forward to a continued partnership.

Sincerely,

Russell Szmulewitz, MD

Dear Bob, Ed, Gary, Jerry, and Jim:

Thank you once again for your recent gift to support the research efforts of Russell Szmulewitz, MD, and Donald Vander Griend, PhD. Your generosity allows them to further their research efforts to better understand and treat prostate cancer. Our mission to provide patients with excellent care and cutting-edge treatment options would not be possible without the thoughtful support of donors like you who help to advance medical research and give patients a fighting chance.

Please accept my sincere gratitude for your incredible support.

Sincerely,
